About the Creator

Chris Ohocinski, a state-licensed and nationally certified athletic trainer, created the Ageless Knees program. With a Bachelor of Science degree in Athletic Training Sports Medicine from East Stroudsburg University, Chris has a background in helping athletes eliminate pain and rehabilitate ankle, shoulder, and knee injuries. He embarked on a journey to find the real cause of knee pain, culminating in the Ageless Knees program, which consists of simple movements designed to enable a pain-free life and restore mobility.

How Does Ageless Knees Work?

The Ageless Knees program targets the underlying cause of knee pain, starting with the femoral nerve, which runs from the lumbar spine to the leg and supports walking and squatting. The program's movements activate the femoral nerve, strengthen the quadriceps, and stabilize the knees. The Massage Wand releases electric currents that improve the connection between the femoral nerve and quadriceps, reducing knee pain by increasing blood flow, reducing swelling, and easing muscle tightness.
